GLASSTRESS 2015 GOTIKA, a joint project of the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, Russia and Berengo Studio, Venice, Italy, is a collateral event in the Biennale Arte 2015 and opens on May 9th, 2015. Curated by Dr. Dimitri Ozerkov, Director of Hermitage 20 / 21 Project for Contemporary Art and of the Contemporary Art Department in the State Hermitage Museum and Adriano Berengo of Berengo Studio, GLASSTRESS 2015 GOTIKA is an exploration of the effect that Gothic and medieval ideas have had on the modern conscience and contemporary art.

GLASSTRESS 2015 GOTIKA combines historical medieval glass and objects from the Hermitage's collection that have rarely if ever been seen by the public and contemporary art works created in glass by internationally renowned artists who were invited by the curators to work with the glass masters in the furnaces of Murano. The artists, who are from over 20 countries, were asked to respond to the gothic concept in their creations in glass.

GLASSTRESS will be exhibited at the historic Palazzo Franchetti on the Grand Canal and in an old glass furnace on Murano, home of the permanent exhibition space of the Fondazione Berengo. Each venue for GLASSTRESS 2015 GOTIKA provides a unique atmosphere and experience of the art.

GLASSTRESS will also present "Life Bank", a site-specific project by Belgian artist Koen Vanmechelen, who in collaboration with the Slow Food Movement will transform the old Banca di Venezia at the top floor of the Palazzo Franchetti into a "Gothic garden" dedicated to bio-diversity with a monumental installation featuring ancient seeds and interactive, multi-sensory spaces.

GLASSTRESS will feature over 50 renowned artists from all over the world who have created works with the maestros of Murano, many working in glass for the first time. The artists: Adel Abidin, Alicja Kwade, Aslan Gaisumov, Ayman Baalbaki, Bart Dorsa, Benoit Sokal (Syberia Saga), Bernar Venet, Diana Al-Hadid, Elmar Trenkwalder, Erdag Aksel, Ernst Billgren, Erwin Wurm, Hans Op de Beeck, Hila Amram, Ilya & Emilia Kabakov, Ivan Plusch, Iyvone Khoo, Jake & Dinos Chapman, Jaume Plensa, Joana Vasconcelos, Johan Creten, Kaneuji Teppei, Kate MccGwire, Koen Vanmechelen, Kris Lemsalu, Leonardo Cimolin, Liu Jianhua, Lucy Orta, Maria Grazia Rosin, Mariyo Yagi, Mat Collishaw, Michael Joo, Mimmo Paladino, Olafur Eliasson, Olga Treivas, Oliver Clegg, Pascale Marthine Tayou, Penny Byrne, Petah Coyne, Qiu Zhijie, Recycle Group, Song Dong, Studio Drift, Tanatos Banionis, Thomas Leroy, Tomáš Libertíny, Tony Cragg, Wael Shawky, Wim Delvoye, Yaşam Şaşmaz, Yin Xiuzhen, Yuichi Higashionna, Zhang Huan.

In 2016, GLASSTRESS GOTIKA will be presented in the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg in the company of Russia's greatest treasures in glass.

NOTES TO EDITORS

The State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg, founded in 1764 by Catherine the Great, is one of the oldest and most important museums in the world. In 2007, Hermitage 20 / 21 was created to collect, exhibit and study the art of the 20th and 21st centuries. Hermitage 20 / 21 is an official partner in GLASSTRESS 2015 GOTIKA.

Berengo Studio was established in 1989 and has focused on bringing visual artists from all over the world to Venice to collaborate with Murano's famous glass masters to create art in glass. This innovative cultural initiative has married the extraordinarily rich and enduring Venetian traditions of glassmaking with contemporary art. This is the fourth edition of GLASSTRESS which has been an official collateral event of the international Venice Biennale since 2009.
